Dear Member,

As you are aware, the prices of food items of the club were last increased quite a few years ago. Since then, the market prices of each and every raw material has increased manifold. This is the main reason for the perpetual loss in the Catering Department of the Club, now having peaked to about 54 lacs in the first six months of this financial year, April – September 2015. Down the line this results in a constant tussle between quality and consistency.

Measures are already being put into place to stop losses in the areas of pilferage, wastage and inventory holding. A plan is also in place now to separate the staff kitchen from that of the Club.

We have carried out an in-depth study of the comparative prices of five premier clubs of Kolkata and it has been observed that prices of food items served in our Club are lower by about 50%. After extensive review by your Committee and some of our regular Senior Members, it has been decided to rationalize the prices of kitchen and bakery items w.e.f. 1st January 2016.

We would like to inform you that despite this rationalization, the price of the Club's food items would still be lower by around 25% as compared to other Clubs. Further, members may please note that these prices are inclusive of VAT and Service Tax inclusive and that the rates for other clubs are exclusive of Taxes. A list is being posted to the Notice board for the attention of Members.

We trust you will appreciate the need for such rationalization and support the measures being put in to curb our ever increasing losses.

With regards,

Yours truly,
For The Saturday Club Ltd.
